ABOUT NVDS

Northern Virginia Dental Society

The Northern Virginia Dental Society (NVDS) was established in 1931 and boasts a membership of approximately 1,400 local dentists, encompassing both general practitioners and specialists, and serving communities in Arlington, Fairfax, Loudoun, Fauquier, Prince William, Stafford, Rappahannock, Culpeper, Madison, Orange, Greene, Spotsylvania, and neighboring cities.

NVDS is the largest component of the Virginia Dental Association (VDA) and larger than 22 state components in the American Dental Association (ADA).

The purpose of the NVDS is to promote the ideals of the profession of dentistry and to foster professional relationships among dentists. The Society also seeks to safeguard the interests and well-being of the public. NVDS member dentists have each made a commitment to uphold the ADA Code of Ethics and the practice standards set forth by all three levels of our tripartite organization.

The mission of the Northern Virginia Dental Society is to represent and serve the members of the Society and the public by fostering quality oral health care through continuing education, open communication, and legislation.

Why Support NVDS?

NVDS offers a variety of sponsorship, exhibitor, advertising, and partnership opportunities at various price points to businesses seeking to market their services or products to our members and their staff. Our valued commercial supporters are recognized in various ways for the crucial role they play in sustaining the quality of our programs, events, and member benefits. Contact the NVDS central office to discuss these and other opportunities in more detail.

Elevate Your Brand

Enhance awareness of your products and services among dentists and staff in the region.

Build Your Network of Dentists

Develop successful, long term relationships with local dentists and their staff.

Showcase Your Support for Dentistry

Contribute to networking opportunities and excellence among local member dentists.

GENERAL TERMS

- Acceptance of a sponsor, exhibitor, or advertisement does not constitute an endorsement by the Society.
- All sponsors, exhibitors, and advertisers are subject to approval by the NVDS Board of Directors.
- NVDS may refuse commercial support if it believes the organization or representative did not comply with all laws and regulations applicable to the manufacture, distribution, and sale of a product or service; has a conflict with or violates the NVDS bylaws or policy, or the ADA Code of Ethics; or is deemed offensive or abusive in nature.
- All dates, fees, benefits, and terms in this prospectus are intended to be as comprehensive and accurate as possible but are subject to change at the discretion of NVDS.
- Sponsorship opportunities have limited availability and are offered on a first-come, first-serve basis, unless otherwise stated.
- NVDS cannot create graphics for a company.
- Marketing opportunities associated with continuing education (CE) courses are subject to additional terms and conditions as required by ADA CERP.
- Please refer to the NVDS terms and agreements for additional details.

What Is an Exhibitor?

Exhibitors showcase their products and services during one or more NVDS continuing education (CE) meetings.

What Is a Sponsor?

Sponsors provide financial or in-kind support of non-CE events or programs, which may or may not include in-person representatives from the company.

What Is an Advertiser?

Advertisers support display ads in NVDS digital and print publications.

A single organization may support NVDS as an exhibitor, sponsor, or advertiser, Categories are not mutually exclusive.

Please contact the NVDS Central Office in Annandale, Virginia if you are interested in any exhibitor, sponsorship, advertising, or other partnership opportunity, or have suggestions on other ways to support the Society

2025-2026 Continuing Education: Exhibitors

We invite you to join us as an exhibitor at our continuing education (CE) events, which offer an outstanding opportunity for you to strengthen relationships with your current clients in the region and connect with potential new ones. This captive meeting of dentists in a single location offers an ideal platform for you to showcase your products and services, saving you valuable time and resources. Our all-day, in-person CE events consistently attract a large number of attendees due to the exceptional quality of our programs and the 15 hours of approved CE credits dentists must complete every year to maintain their licensure with the Virginia Board of Dentistry.

Register to exhibit at all five CE meetings in advance to save $500!

Register by September 1 to be included in all CE promotional materials. Space is limited.

Full Season Exhibitor Fee: $1,000 per CE meeting for a total of $5,000

Regular Exhibitor Fee: $1,100 per CE meeting for a total of $5,500

NVDS Standards for Advertisements

- All advertising submitted is subject to review and, where needed, editing.
- Advertising must not be deceptive or misleading.
- Further information may be requested from advertisers.
- Advertising deemed to be in conflict with the ADA Principles of Ethics and Professional Code <https://www.ada.org/about/principles/code-of-ethics> of conduct will not be accepted; also, advertisements found to be offensive, discriminatory, promoting bigotry, or engaging in personal attacks will be refused. Any product, service, or company involved in regulatory proceedings or litigation may be declined.
- Advertisers must guarantee that all products meet applicable state of Virginia and Federal regulatory requirements. Appearance in NVDS publications or online does not imply that these products and services, do, in fact, meet these requirements. It is the advertiser's responsibility to comply with state and Federal regulations.
- Advertisements may reference scientific literature if such references are truthful and accurate. The NVDS may request further documentation if needed.
- Paid political advertisements for candidates for public office will not be accepted. This is not intended, in any way, to prohibit or discourage individuals from seeking office in their local government, ADA, VDA, or component societies.
- Advertisements for tobacco and cannabis products and alcoholic beverages will not be accepted.
- Educational courses may be advertised if the requirements of the ADA Continuing Education Recognition Program (CERP) are met. Also, courses sponsored by state or component dental societies meeting the requirements of the Academy of General Dentistry for recognition may be advertised. Courses sponsored by commercial entities will be considered for publication on an individual basis.
- The words "Paid Advertisement" must appear in any advertising simulating editorial content.
- Testimonial advertising and quotes must be truthful, accurate, and placed only with the written consent of the individual, agency, or organization quoted.
- NVDS will not accept advertisements that contain dentist(s) names as endorsements.
